Whatever may be said of the scientific causes upon which the Rev. Irl R. Hicks based his yearly forecasts of storm and weather, it is a remarkable fact that specific warnings of every great storm, flood, cold wave and drouth, have been plainly printed in his now famous Almanac for many years. The startling proof of this fact was the destruction of Galveston, Texas, on the very day named by Prof. Hicks in his 1900 Almanac, as one of disaster by storm along the gulf coasts. The 1901 Almanac, by far the finest, most complete and beautiful yet published, is now ready. This remarkable book of near two hundred pages, splendidly illustrated with charts and half-tone engravings, goes as a premium to every subscriber who pays one dollar a year for Prof. Hicks' journal, WORD AND WORKS. The Almanac alone is sent prepaid for only 25c. Order from WORD AND WORKS Publishing Company, 2201 Locust Street, St. Louis, Mo.

Every discriminating person will say that The Biggle books advertised in this issue of the Times, contain a greater amount of condensed, common sense, well arranged information than any books they have seen relating to these important branches of farm industry. The price of each is 50 cents, free by mail; address the publishers, Wilmer Atkinson Co., Philadelphia, Pa.
